Ideally situated close to the City and to the West End of London, the Old Sessions House is the only building on the west side of Clerkenwell Green just five minutes walk from Farringdon Station.

Farringdon Station is served by Thameslink trains with connections to Bedford, Luton and St Albans to the north and to Gatwick and Brighton in the south.

The station is also served by London Underground Metropolitan, Circle, Hammersmith and City lines.

London Buses. Bus routes 55, 63, 243 have stops within 2 minutes walk. The 243 connects with Waterloo main line station.

For those coming by car there are two large NCP car parks close by. These are in Bowling Green Lane and the Saffron Hill car park in St Cross Street. At Saffron Hill special rates apply to those using the Old Sessions House after 3pm.
